

ANNEX XIII

LISTS OF COMMITMENTS OF THE REPUBLICS OF THE CA PARTY ON KEY PERSONNEL AND GRADUATE TRAINEES (referred to in Article 174 of Title III, Part IV of the Agreement)

COSTA RICA

1. The list of commitments below indicates the economic activities, services sectors and sub-sectors committed pursuant to Article 174, paragraph 2 of the Agreement and the applicable reservations and conditions on key personnel and graduate trainees. The list is composed of the following elements:

- (a) A first column indicating the economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors in which the commitment is assumed by the Party, and the scope to which the reservations and conditions apply.
- (b) A second column listing the applicable reservations and conditions.

2. For the purpose of this list, the term none indicates economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors where there are no specific reservations and conditions in given economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors, without prejudice to the horizontal reservations and conditions that apply. The term unbound indicates that no commitments have been made.

3. Costa Rica does not undertake any commitment on key personnel and graduate trainees in economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors not mentioned in the list below.

4. In identifying individual economic activities:

- (a) ISIC rev 3.1 means the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 4, ISIC REV 3.1, 2002.
- (b) CPC means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC prov, 1991.
- (c) CPC ver. 1.0 means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC ver 1.0, 1998.

5. Commitments on key personnel and graduate trainees do not apply in cases where the intent or effect of their temporary presence is to interfere with or otherwise affect the outcome of any labour/management dispute or negotiation.

6. The list below does not include measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements (including any concession, permits, register and other authorisation) and procedures when they do not constitute a reservation within the meaning of Article 174 of the Agreement. Those measures (for example, need to obtain a license, need to obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors, need to pass specific examinations, including language examinations, need to have a legal domicile in the territory where the economic activity is performed), even if not listed, apply in any case to key personnel and graduate trainees of the EU Party.

7. In accordance with Article 159, paragraph 3 of the Agreement, the list below does not include measures concerning subsidies granted by the Parties.

8. All requirements of the laws and regulations of Costa Rica regarding entry, stay, work and social security measures shall continue to apply, including regulations concerning period of stay, minimum wages as well as collective wage agreements even if not listed below.

9. The list below is without prejudice to the existence of public monopolies and exclusive rights as described in the list of commitments on establishment.

10. In those economic activities where economic needs tests are applied, their main criteria will be the assessment of the relevant market situation or the region where the service is to be provided, including with respect to the number of, and the impact on, existing services suppliers.

11. The rights and obligations arising from this list of commitments shall have no self-executing effect and thus confer no rights directly to individual natural persons or juridical persons.

GUATEMALA

1. The list of commitments below indicates the economic activities, services sectors and sub-sectors committed pursuant to Article 174, paragraph 2 of the Agreement and the applicable reservations and conditions on key personnel and graduate trainees. The list is composed of the following elements:

- (a) A first column indicating the economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors in which the commitment is assumed by the Party, and the scope to which the reservations and conditions apply.
- (b) A second column listing the applicable reservations and conditions.

2. For the purpose of this list, the term none indicates economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors where there are no specific reservations and conditions in given economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors without prejudice to the horizontal reservations and conditions that apply. The term unbound indicates that no commitments have been made.

3. Guatemala does not undertake any commitment on key personnel and graduate trainees in economic activities, service sectors or sub-sectors not mentioned in the list below.

4. In identifying individual economic activities:

- (a) ISIC rev 3.1 means the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 4, ISIC REV 3.1, 2002.
- (b) CPC means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC prov, 1991.
- (c) CPC ver. 1.0 means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC ver 1.0, 1998.

5. Commitments on key personnel and graduate trainees do not apply in cases where the intent or effect of their temporary presence is to interfere with or otherwise affect the outcome of any labour/management dispute or negotiation.

6. The list below does not include measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements (including any concession, permits, register and other authorisation) and procedures, and measures regarding employment, work and social security conditions when they do not constitute a limitation within the meaning of Article 174 of the Agreement. Those measures (for example, need to obtain a license, need to obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors, need to pass specific examinations, including language examinations, need to have a legal domicile in the territory where the economic activity is performed, need to comply with national regulations and practices concerning minimum wages and with collective wage agreements in the host country), even if not listed, apply in any case to key personnel and graduate trainees of the EU Party.

7. In accordance with Article 159, paragraph 3 of the Agreement, the list below does not include measures concerning subsidies granted by the Parties.

8. All requirements of the laws and regulations of Guatemala regarding entry, stay, work and social security measures shall continue to apply, including regulations concerning period of stay, minimum wages as well as collective wage agreements even if not listed below.

9. The list below is without prejudice to the existence of public monopolies and exclusive rights as described in the list of commitments on establishment.

10. In those economic activities where economic needs tests are applied, their main criteria will be the assessment of the relevant market situation or the region where the service is to be provided, including with respect to the number of, and the impact on, existing services suppliers.

11. The rights and obligations arising from this list of commitments shall have no self-executing effect and thus confer no rights directly to individual natural persons or juridical persons.

Economic activity or services sector or sub-sector	Description of reservations
HORIZONTAL RESERVATIONS
All economic activities, and services sectors and sub-sector listed:
1. Every employer is prohibited to employ less than ninety percent of Guatemalan workers and pay them less than eighty-five percent of the total wages earned in their respective business, unless otherwise provided under special laws. Both proportions may change: a) If so require obvious reasons of protecting and promoting the national economy, or lack of Guatemalans technicians in a particular activity or defending national workers to demonstrate their abilities. In all these circumstances, the Executive Branch, through agreement reasoned issued through the Ministry of Labor and Social Security, both ratios may decrease by up to ten per cent each and for a period of five years for each company, or increase them to eliminate the participation of foreign workers. In case the Ministry authorises the reduction of rates expressed before, it should require companies to prepare Guatemalan technicians in the branch of their activities within that purpose was granted; and b) When authorised and controlled immigration occur by the Executive Branch or contracted by the same, and entering or have entered the country to work in the establishment or development of settled agriculture or livestock, welfare institutions or cultural character; or in the case of Central American origin. In all these circumstances, the scope of the respective modification should be given the discretion of the Executive Branch, but the agreement that was handed down through the Ministry of Labour and Social Security must clearly state the reasons, limit and duration of the change is made. For the purposes of the first paragraph fractions should not be taken into account, and when the total number of employees does not exceed five, four of them shall be Guatemalans. The provision of this measure does not apply to managers, administrators, supervisors and general managers of companies. For greater certainty this clause applies to foreign workers under an employment relationship in the host country and without prejudice of the commitments made under Chapter 4 (Temporary Presence of Natural Persons for Business Purposes).
2. Economic activities considered as public utilities may be subject to a public monopoly or to exclusive rights granted to natural persons or juridical persons, public or private.
3. Guatemala reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that guarantees rights or preferences for Minorities and Indigenous Populations, socially and economically disadvantaged.
4. An authorisation of entry and temporary stay under this list shall not supersede the non-discriminatory requirements demanded to the exercise of a profession or activity according to the specific regulatory framework in force.
5. The reservations affecting establishment in accordance with Article 166 of the Agreement, as specified in the Lists of Commitments on Establishment, shall apply to the commitments set out in this list.

1. The list of commitments below indicates the economic activities, services sectors and sub-sectors committed pursuant to Articles 174 of the Agreement and the applicable reservations and conditions on key personnel and graduate trainees. The list is composed of the following elements:

- (a) A first column indicating the economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors in which the commitment is assumed by the Party, and the scope to which the reservations and conditions apply.
- (b) A second column listing the applicable reservations and conditions.

2. For the purpose of this list, the term None indicates an economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors where there are no specific reservations and conditions in given economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors without prejudice to the horizontal reservations and conditions that apply. The term unbound indicates that no commitments have been made.

3. Panama does not undertake any commitment on key personnel and graduate trainees in economic activities, services sectors or sub-sectors not mentioned in the list below.

4. In identifying individual economic activities:

- (a) ISIC rev 3.1 means the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 4, ISIC REV 3.1, 2002.
- (b) CPC means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC prov, 1991.
- (c) CPC ver. 1.0 means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC ver 1.0, 1998.

5. Commitments on key personnel and graduate trainees do not apply in cases where the intent or effect of their temporary presence is to interfere with or otherwise affect the outcome of any labour/management dispute or negotiation.

6. The list below does not include measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements (including any concession, permits, register and other authorisation) and procedures, and measures regarding employment, work and social security conditions when they do not constitute a limitation within the meaning of Articles 174 and 175 of the Agreement. Those measures (for example need to obtain a license, need to obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors, need to pass specific examinations, including language examinations, need to have a legal domicile in the territory where the economic activity is performed, need to comply with national regulations and practices concerning minimum wages and with collective wage agreements in the host country), even if not listed, apply in any case to key personnel and graduate trainees of the EU Party.

7. In accordance with Article 159, paragraph 3 of the Agreement, the list below does not include measures concerning subsidies granted by the Parties.

8. All requirements of the laws and regulations of Panama regarding entry, stay, work and social security measures shall continue to apply, including regulations concerning period of stay, minimum wages as well as collective wage agreements even if not listed below.

9. The list below is without prejudice to the existence of public monopolies and exclusive rights as described in the list of commitments on establishment.

10. In those economic activities where economic needs tests are applied, their main criteria will be the assessment of the relevant market situation or the region where the service is to be provided, including with respect to the number of, and the impact on, existing services suppliers.

11. The rights and obligations arising from this list of commitments shall have no self-executing effect and thus confer no rights directly to individual natural persons or juridical persons.
