Notes of Panama

1. A sub-central governmental unit listed above (a “participating unit”) may deny the benefits of this section to a supplier of the United States unless it meets one of the applicable conditions set out below.

a. Procurement of Goods:
   (i) The supplier is offering to supply a good of the United States, as determined under Article 9.2.3 of this Chapter [General Principles], and has a principal place of business in a state listed in the Schedule of the United States (a “participating state”) or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an enterprise with a principal place of business in a participating state; or
   (ii) The supplier is offering to supply a good that is substantially produced or assembled in one or more participating states. A good shall be considered to be substantially produced or assembled in a participating state or states if the production or assembly in the participating state or states accounts for 51 percent or more of the value of the good.

b. Procurement of Services Other Than Construction Services:
   (i) If the supplier is offering to supply a service, other than a construction service, the supplier has a principal place of business in a participating state or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an enterprise with a principal place of business in a participating state; or
The supplier is offering to supply a service, other than a construction service, that is substantially performed within a participating state or states. A service, other than a construction service, shall be considered to be substantially performed in a participating state or states if the performance of the service in the participating state or states accounts for 51 percent or more of the value of the service.

c. Procurement of Construction Services:

If the supplier is offering to supply construction services, the supplier has a principal place of business in a participating state or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an enterprise with a principal place of business in a participating state.

2. For purposes of paragraph 1, “principal place of business” means the headquarters or main office of an enterprise, or any other place where the enterprise's business is managed, conducted, or operated.

3. A participating unit shall allow a supplier to self-certify that it meets the conditions set out in paragraph 1. If the unit considers the certification to be erroneous or unsubstantiated, the unit shall, after consultations with the supplier, permit the supplier to challenge that determination in accordance with Article 9.15 of this Chapter (Domestic Review Procedures).

Schedule of the United States

This Chapter covers procurement only by those entities listed in this Schedule.

Notes to the Schedule of the United States
1. For the states marked by an asterisk (*), indicating pre-existing restrictions, this Chapter does not cover the procurement of construction-grade steel (including requirements on subcontracts), motor vehicles, or coal.

2. This Chapter does not apply to preferences or restrictions associated with programs promoting the development of distressed areas, or businesses owned by minorities, disabled veterans, or women.

3. Nothing in this Annex shall be construed to prevent any state entity from applying restrictions that promote the general environmental quality in that state, as long as such restrictions are not disguised barriers to international trade.

4. This Chapter does not cover any procurement made by a covered entity on behalf of non-covered entities at a different level of government.

5. This Chapter does not apply to restrictions attached to Federal funds for mass transit and highway projects.
6. This Chapter does not apply to the procurement of printing services.

7. A procuring entity of a state listed above (a “participating state”) may deny the benefits of this section to a supplier of Panama unless it meets one of the applicable conditions set out below.

   a. Procurement of Goods:

      (i) The supplier is offering to supply a good of Panama, as determined under Article 9.2.3 of this Chapter [General Principles], and has a principal place of business in a sub-central governmental unit listed in the Schedule of Panama (a “participating unit”) or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an enterprise with a principal place of business in a participating unit; or

      (ii) The supplier is offering to supply a good that is substantially produced or assembled in one or more participating units. A good shall be considered to be substantially produced or assembled in a participating unit or units if the production or assembly in the participating unit or units accounts for 51 percent or more of the value of the good.

   b. Procurement of Services Other Than Construction Services:

      (i) If the supplier is offering to supply a service, other than a construction service, the supplier has a principal place of business in a participating unit or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an enterprise with a principal place of business in a participating unit; or

      (ii) The supplier is offering to supply a service, other than a construction service, that is substantially performed within a participating unit or units. A service, other than a construction service, shall be considered to be substantially performed in a participating unit or units if the performance of the service in the participating unit or units accounts for 51 percent or more of the value of the service.

   c. Procurement of Construction Services:

      If the supplier is offering to supply construction services, the supplier has a principal place of business in a participating unit or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an enterprise with a principal place of business in a participating unit.

8. For purposes of paragraph 7, “principal place of business” means the headquarters or main office of an enterprise, or any other place where the enterprise's business is managed, conducted or operated.

9. A participating state shall allow a supplier to self-certify that it meets the conditions set out in paragraph 7. If the state considers the certification to be erroneous or unsubstantiated, the state shall, after consultations with the supplier, permit the supplier to challenge that determination in accordance with Article 9.15 of this Chapter (Domestic Review Procedures).

Section C: Other Government Entities

1. This Chapter applies to the other covered entities listed in each Party’s Schedule to this Section where the value of the procurement is estimated, in accordance with paragraph 1 of Section I, to equal or exceed for procurement of:

   (a) goods and services of:
       (i) List A entities, US$250,000; or
       (ii) List B entities, US$593,000; and
   (b) construction services for List A and List B entities: US$7,407,000.

The monetary thresholds set out in subparagraphs (a)(ii) and (b) shall be adjusted in accordance with Section I of this Annex.

2. Unless otherwise specified, this Chapter covers all agencies subordinate to the entities listed in each Party’s Schedule.

Notes to the Schedule of the United States

1. The Rural Utilities Service agrees to:

   (a) waive federal buy national requirements imposed as conditions of funding for all power generation projects; and

   (b) apply procurement procedures equivalent to the procedures in the WTO Agreement on Government Procurement and national treatment to funded projects exceeding the thresholds specified above.

For greater certainty, this Chapter does not apply to any other aspect of procurement by the Rural Utilities Service, including any restrictions the Rural Utilities Service places on financing for telecommunications projects.

2. With respect to procurement by entities listed in this Section, this Chapter does not apply to restrictions attached to Federal funds for airport projects.
Section D: Autoridad Del Canal De Panamá

This Chapter applies to procurements by the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá where the value of the procurement is estimated, in accordance with Section I of this Annex, to equal or exceed the following relevant threshold:

(a) Goods and services: US$ 593,000; and
(b) Construction services: US$ 12,000,000 for 12 years after entry into force of this Agreement, and then US$ 10.3 million.

The monetary thresholds set out in this Section shall be adjusted in accordance with Section I of this Annex.

Unless otherwise specified within this Section, this Chapter covers all agencies subordinate to this entity.

Notes to this Section

1. This Chapter shall not apply to procurement measures of the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá designed to promote micro, small and medium enterprises, in accordance with the following:
   (a) A “micro, small and medium enterprise” is defined, for purposes of this Annex, as a business that has 100 or fewer employees and total annual sales of no more than US$2.5 million;
   (b) The Autoridad del Canal de Panamá may award Panamanian micro, small and medium enterprises a price preference that shall not exceed ten percent in tenders covered by this Chapter;
   (c) Further to Article 9.3, the Republic of Panamá shall notify the United States of the establishment of any price preference program initiated under sub-paragraph (b); and
   (d) The price preference shall be clearly described in the notice of intended procurement or notice inviting suppliers to participate in the procurement and relevant tender documentation.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, for each of the 12 full fiscal years following the entry into force of this Agreement, the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá may, at its discretion, set aside from the obligations of this Chapter procurement contracts for goods, services, and construction services subject to the following:
   (a) the set-asides are for Panamanian nationals or suppliers owned and controlled by Panamanian nationals;
(b) the set asides provided for in this paragraph may be applied only when the total value of the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá’s procurement for a fiscal year exceeds US$200 million;

(c) the total value of the procurement contracts that the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá sets aside pursuant to this paragraph in each fiscal year may not exceed 10 percent of the total value of its procurement contracts for goods and services, and any combination thereof, and construction services awarded in the fiscal year that are:
(i) covered by the Chapter; and
(ii) in excess of the US$200 million base for the fiscal year;

(d) the total value of procurement contracts under any single CPC 1.0 section that may be set aside under this paragraph in any fiscal year may not exceed 20 percent of the total value of the procurement contracts that may be set aside under this paragraph for that year;

(e) in the event that the total value of the procurement contracts set aside by the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá exceeds in any given fiscal year the level permitted under this paragraph, the Parties, in conjunction with the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá, shall consult with a view to agreement on adjustment in the form of the reduction of set-asides during the following fiscal year;

(f) where a procurement contract will be set aside pursuant to this paragraph, that information shall be clearly indicated in the notice of intended procurement or notice inviting suppliers to participate in the procurement and relevant tender documentation;

(g) if the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá proposes to apply set-asides after the 12-year period referenced in this paragraph, it shall so inform the Parties in the 9th year in which the set asides may be applied. The Parties, in conjunction with the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá, shall consult regarding the proposal to extend the time for application of set-asides, and, if they agree, the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá, may continue to apply set asides pursuant to this paragraph in the additional period agreed upon; and

(h) an annual report shall be prepared with sufficient detail to establish that the set-asides have been applied in accordance with this paragraph.

3. The minimum 40-day time period set out in Article 9.5.1 shall not apply to the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá. The Autoridad del Canal de Panamá shall provide suppliers sufficient time to prepare and submit responsive tenders, taking into account the nature and complexity of the procurement. However, the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá shall in no case provide for less than five business days from the date on which the notice of intended procurement is published on the Internet to the final date for the submission of tenders.
4. Article 9.15.2 shall not apply to the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá.

5. Notwithstanding Article 9.15.6(a), the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá shall provide no less than five business days for suppliers to prepare and submit written challenges, with the understanding that the period shall commence on the first business day that follows the publication of the announcement of the contract award on the Internet.

6. The procurements of the Autoridad del Canal de Panamá shall be excluded from the application of Annex 20.2 (Nullification or Impairment) of Chapter 20 (Dispute Settlement).

Exceptions to coverage set forth in Section H apply to this Section.

Section E: Goods

This Chapter applies to all goods procured by the entities listed in Sections A through D for each Party, subject to the Notes to the respective Sections and the General Notes of each Party.

Section F: Services

This Chapter applies to all services procured by the entities listed in Sections A through D, subject to the Notes to the respective Sections, the General Notes, and the Notes to this Section, except for the services excluded in the Schedules of each Party. All services covered by this Section are subject to the existing measures listed in each Party’s Schedules to Annex [ ] [(Investment), [ ] (Services), and [ ] (Financial Services)].

Section G: Construction Services

This Chapter applies to all construction services procured by the entities listed in Sections through D, subject to the Notes to the respective Sections and the General Notes. [All services covered by this Section are subject to the existing measures listed in each Party’s Schedules to Annex [ ] (Investment), [ ] (Services), and [ ] (Financial Services).]

Schedule of Panama

This Chapter does not cover the procurement of dredging services.

Note to the Schedule of Panama
Exceptions to coverage set forth in Section H apply to this Section.

Schedule of the United States

This Chapter does not cover the procurement of dredging services.

Section H: General Notes

Unless otherwise specified herein, the following General Notes in each Party’s Schedule apply without exception to this Chapter, including to all sections of this Annex.

Schedule of Panama

This Chapter shall not apply to:

1. Procurements made under the system of concessions granted by the State, others than public works concession contracts.

2. Procurement measures designed to promote micro, small and medium enterprises, in accordance with the following:

   (a) A “micro, small and medium enterprise” is defined, for purposes of this Annex, as a business that has 100 or fewer employees and total annual sales of no more than US$2.5 million;

   (b) The Republic of Panama may award its micro, small and medium enterprises a price preference, for a period of up to five years, that shall not exceed ten percent in tenders covered by this Chapter;

   (c) Further to Article 9.3, the Republic of Panama shall notify the United States of the establishment of any price preference program initiated under sub-paragraph (b);

   (d) The price preference shall be clearly described in the notice of intended procurement or notice inviting suppliers to participate in the procurement and relevant tender documentation;

   (e) If, before the end of the five–year period referred to in subparagraph (b), the Republic of Panama proposes to extend the price preference program, the Parties shall consult to determine whether there is a need to extend the price preference program, and if they agree that there is such a need, to determine the terms and conditions of the extension; and

   (f) If following the entry into force of this Agreement, the Republic of Panama proposes to implement a procurement measure that is intended to provide an exclusive right for its micro, small and medium enterprises to provide a good or service covered by this Agreement, the Republic of Panama shall consult with the United States, and if both Parties agree on the need, terms and conditions for such a measure, the Republic of Panama may implement the measure.
3. Procurements of agricultural products linked to agricultural development and support and food aid programs.

4. Procurements made by a Panamanian entity to another Panamanian entity.

5. Procurement of transportation services that form a part of, or are incidental to, a procurement contract.

Schedule of the United States
1. This Chapter does not apply to set asides on behalf of small or minority businesses. Set-asides include any form of preference, such as the exclusive right to provide a good or service and price preferences.

2. This Chapter does not apply to the procurement of transportation services that form a part of, or are incidental to, a procurement contract.

Section I: Threshold Adjustment Formula
1. In calculating the value of a contract for the purpose of ascertaining whether a procurement is covered by this Chapter, a procuring entity shall include the maximum total estimated value of the procurement over its entire duration, taking into account all options, premiums, fees, commissions, interest, and other revenue streams, or other forms of remuneration provided for in such contracts.

2. The thresholds in Sections A through D shall be adjusted at two-year intervals with each adjustment taking effect on January 1, beginning on January 1, 2008.

3. The thresholds for goods and services for Section A entities and List B entities in Section C and construction services for Sections A through C are conversions into U.S. dollars of the thresholds listed in the U.S. Appendix 1 to the World Trade Organization Agreement on Government Procurement, which are set out in Special Drawing Rights (SDRs) and listed below. Every two years, the United States shall calculate the adjustment of these thresholds, based on an average of the daily conversion rates of the U.S. dollar in terms of SDRs published by the IMF in its monthly "International Financial Statistics," for the two-year period preceding October 1 or November 1 of the year before the adjusted thresholds are to take effect:
   (a) 130,000 SDRs for goods and services for Section A entities;
   (b) 355,000 SDRs for goods and services for Section B entities;
   (c) 400,000 SDRs for goods and services for Section C List B entities; and
   (d) 5 million SDRs for construction services.

4. The United States shall notify Panama of the adjusted threshold values by December 15 of the year before the adjusted thresholds take effect.

Section J: Transition Mechanisms
Panama shall make best efforts to comply with the obligations listed in its Schedule to this Section during the two years following the date of entry into force of this Agreement. The Notes to Panama’s Schedule shall apply during this two-year period. Thereafter, Panama shall fully comply with these obligations.

Schedule of Panama

1. Article 9.5.1 (40 days time limit for the tendering process) (Note 1)

2. Article 9.13 (establishment and maintenance of systems that declare a supplier ineligible for participation) (Note 2)

Notes

1. Article 9.5.1: For the tendering process set out in Article 9.5.1, Panama shall provide at least 30 (thirty) days for suppliers to submit tenders following the publication of the notice of intended procurement.

2. Article 9.13: Panama shall not adopt any measure that weakens its current practice with respect to Article 9.13.
