

NEW ZEALAND FOREIGN AFFAIRS & TRADE MANATŪ AORERE

Trans-Pacific Partnership signed 04 Feb 2016

Trans-Pacific Partnership ...

The Trans-Pacific Partnership, aimed at liberalising trade among 12 Pacific-rim countries, has been signed.

New Zealand hosted representatives from the 11 other countries for the signing ceremony in Auckland.

The Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) is a free trade agreement between Australia, Brunei Darussalam, Canada, Chile, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, Singapore, the United States and Viet Nam.

Following signature, the Government will submit the National Interest Analysis, together with the text of the agreement, to Parliament for Parliamentary treaty examination. The Government will also be running roadshows for the public to learn more about TPP, and to help businesses prepare for the economic opportunities it will bring. See TPP website \(external link\) for more information.

Resources

- Images of TPP signing event \(external link\)

- Statement by Minister of Trade \(external link\)
 - Statement by Prime Minister \(external link\)
 - Media and resources \(external link\) on TPP website
-

Contact us

Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade

*195 Lambton Quay
Private Bag 18 901
Wellington 6160
New Zealand*

Phone | +64 4 439 8000

Email |