National Treatment (Article 11.3)
Performance Requirements (Article 11.8)

Description
Investment

1. Korea reserves the right to adopt, with respect to the establishment or acquisition of an investment, any measure that is necessary for the maintenance of public order pursuant to Article 4 of the Foreign Investment Promotion Act (2007) and Article 5 of the Enforcement Decree of the Foreign Investment Promotion Act (2007), provided that Korea promptly provides written notice to the United States that it has adopted such a measure and that the measure:

(a) is applied in accordance with the procedural requirements set out in the Foreign Investment Promotion Act (2007), Enforcement Decree of the Foreign Investment Promotion Act (2007), and other applicable law;

(b) is adopted or maintained only where the investment poses a genuine and sufficiently serious threat to the fundamental interests of society;

(c) is not applied in an arbitrary or unjustifiable manner;

(d) does not constitute a disguised restriction on investment; and

(e) is proportional to the objective it seeks to achieve.

2. Without prejudice to any claim that may be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Article 11.16.1, a claimant may submit to arbitration under Section B of Chapter Eleven (Investment) a claim that:

(a) Korea has adopted a measure for which it has provided notice pursuant to paragraph 1; and
(b) the claimant or, as the case may be, an enterprise of Korea that is a juridical person that the claimant owns or controls directly or indirectly, has incurred loss or damage by reason of, or arising out of, the measure.

In the event of such a claim, Section B of Chapter Eleven (Investment) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, and all references in Section B of Chapter Eleven (Investment) to a breach, or to an alleged breach, of an obligation under Section A of Chapter Eleven (Investment) shall be understood to refer to the measure, which would constitute a breach of an obligation under Section A of Chapter Eleven (Investment) but for this entry. However, no award may be made in favor of the claimant, if Korea establishes to the satisfaction of the tribunal that the measure satisfies all the conditions listed in subparagraphs (a) through (e) of paragraph 1.

3. This entry does not apply to the extent that a measure referred to in paragraph 1 is subject to Chapter Thirteen (Financial Services).

Existing Measures

Article 4 of the Foreign Investment Promotion Act (Law No. 8380, Apr. 11, 2007)

Article 5 of its Enforcement Decree (Presidential Decree No. 19826, Jan. 5, 2007)
Sector: All Sectors

- National Treatment (Articles 11.3 and 12.2)
- Performance Requirements (Article 11.8)
- Senior Management and Boards of Directors (Article 11.9)
- Local Presence (Article 12.5)

Description: Investment

Korea reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure with respect to the transfer or disposition of equity interests or assets held by state enterprises or governmental authorities.

Such a measure shall be implemented in accordance with the provisions of Chapter Twenty-One (Transparency).

Notwithstanding Article 13.9.3, this entry shall not be treated as a non-conforming measure not subject to Article 13.2.

This entry will not apply to former private enterprises which are owned by the state as a result of corporate reorganization processes in accordance with relevant laws, if any.

For the purposes of this entry:

A state enterprise shall include any enterprise created for the sole purpose of selling or disposing of equity interests or assets of state enterprise or governmental authorities.

Cross-Border Trade in Services and Investment

Without prejudice to Korea’s commitments undertaken in Annex I and Annex II, Korea reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure with respect to the transfer to the private sector of all or any portion of services provided in the exercise of governmental authority.

This entry does not apply to a measure inconsistent with Article 11.3 or 12.2 to the extent that the measure affects the supply of express delivery services that the laws of Korea permit. This paragraph does not prevent Korea from establishing or maintaining a state enterprise.

Notwithstanding Article 13.9.3, this entry shall not be treated as a non-conforming measure not subject to Article 13.2.

Existing Measures

Article 203 of the Securities and Exchange Act (Law No 8315, Mar. 29, 2007)

Description | Cross-Border Trade in Services and Investment
Korea reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that:
(a) limits cross-ownership among media sectors;
(b) sets the minimum percentage of issued stocks or equity interest that serves as a threshold to determine whether a juridical person organized under the laws of Korea is a deemed foreign person. This subparagraph does not apply to a program provider that is not engaged in jong-hap-pyeon-sung (multi-genre programming), bo-do (news reporting), or home-shopping;
(c) requires the members of the board of directors to be a Korean national or resident;
(d) requires platform operator (e.g., a cable system or satellite broadcasting operator) to retransmit a terrestrial broadcasting or to transmit public interest channel;
(e) with respect to a terrestrial broadcaster, requires a certain percentage of annual programming hours to be newly produced domestic animation, provided that such measure shall not constitute material impairment of current market access for US animation content.\(^1\);
with respect to a program provider that primarily provides \(^1\) For purposes of transparency, under the Broadcasting Act (Law No. 8301, Jan. 26, 2007), Korea Broadcasting Commission may set a specific percentage within the limit of one and a half percent of annual programming hours of a terrestrial broadcaster for newly produced domestic animation. As of April 30, 2007, one percent of annual programming hours for KBS, MBC and SBS, and 0.3 percent for EBS are assigned for newly produced domestic animation.
animation programming or is engaged in jong-hap-pyeon-sung (multi-genre programming), requires a certain percentage of annual programming hours to be newly produced domestic animation, provided that the measure permits the program provider to provide a greater quantity of foreign content than specified in Annex I;

(f) imposes an outsourced production content quota, expenditure requirement for Korean production, or prime time quota, provided that, if such quota or requirement is applied to a cable system or satellite broadcasting operator or program provider, the measure permits such supplier to provide a greater quantity of foreign content than specified in Annex I;

(g) requires a supplier of broadcasting services that provides video on demand (VOD) services to store a certain percentage of Korean content, provided that such a requirement does not result in the storage of videos for which there is negligible consumer demand; or

(h) restricts or prohibits retransmission of foreign broadcasting services in a specific category (including foreign cable channels) provided that the measures specified in Annex I imposing foreign equity limitations with respect to program providers in that category are eliminated. This subparagraph does not apply with respect to a supplier of foreign retransmitted broadcasting services approved on or before the date of signature of this Agreement and such a supplier may continue to supply its services in accordance with the Broadcasting Act (Law No. 8301, Jan. 26, 2007 and Decision No. 2005-18-144, April 26, 2005).

For the purpose of this entry:

(a) a deemed foreign person means a juridical person organized under the laws of Korea in which a foreign government or a foreign person holds in the aggregate more than 50 percent of its total issued stocks or equity interest, or whose the largest shareholder is a foreign government or a foreign person;

(b) outsourced production content means content produced in Korea by an independent production company organized under the laws of Korea; and

(c) prime time quota means a requirement to provide a certain percentage of Korean content during hours of high viewership.

Description: Cross-Border Trade in Services and Investment

1. Subject to paragraph 2, Korea reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure with the respect to a supplier of subscription-based video services as part of future regulatory reforms in the broadcasting and telecommunications sectors or taking into account deliberations by the Broadcasting and Telecommunications Convergence Promotion Committee.

2. With respect to subscription-based video services,

   (a) any such measure that limits foreign equity shall be decided in accordance with domestic policy determination on the classification of subscription-based video services and shall be no less favorable with respect to a supplier of subscription-based video services than a measure applied pursuant to the Telecommunications Services entry in Annex I with respect to a facilities-based supplier of public telecommunications services or the Communications-Broadcasting Services entry in Annex I with respect to a cable system operator, as the case may be. Such a measure shall be subject to Article 11.12.1(c); and

   (b) any such measure that imposes domestic content quota may set a level no higher than the percentage permitted pursuant to the Communications-Broadcasting Services entry in Annex I with respect to a cable system operator. Such a measure shall be subject to Article 11.12.1(c).

For transparency, the Broadcasting and Telecommunications Convergence Promotion Committee is to design policy and reform the regulatory framework on the following areas:
(a) restructuring the regulatory authority and setting a new legal framework;
(b) reviewing the industry’s classification system;
(c) licensing and authorization of players;
(d) ownership and cross-ownership system;
(e) regulations on business activities;
(f) improving technological regulations;
(g) realizing universal service; and
(h) addressing the issue on public interest programs in the convergence era.

For purposes of this entry, subscription-based video services means subscription-based video services that are supplied to end-users over dedicated transmission capacity that the supplier owns or controls (including by leasing) and includes Internet Protocol-based Television (“IPTV”) and Interactive Broadcasting.

1. Korea reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measures with respect to, including but not limited to, the following:

   (a) Restrictions on certification, approval, registration, admission, supervision and any other requirements with respect to foreign country-licensed lawyers or foreign law firms supplying any type of legal services in Korea;

   (b) Restrictions on foreign country-licensed lawyers or foreign law firms entering into a partnership, commercial association, affiliation, or any other relationship regardless of its legal form, with byeon-ho-sa (Korean-licensed lawyer), Korean law firms, beop-mu-sa (Korean judicial scrivener), byeon-ri-sa (Korean patent attorney), gong-in-hoe-ge-sa (certified public accountant), se-mu-sa (Korean certified tax accountant) or gwan-se-sa (Korean customs broker);

   (c) Restrictions on foreign country-licensed lawyers or foreign law firms hiring byeon-ho-sa (Korean-licensed lawyer), beop-mu-sa (Korean judicial scrivener), byeon-ri-sa (Korean patent attorney), gong-in-hoe-ge-sa (certified public accountants), se-mu-sa (Korean certified tax accountants) or gwan-se-sa (Korean customs brokers); and,

   (d) Restriction on senior management and the board of directors including chairman.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1,

   (a) No later than the date of entry into force of this Agreement,
Korea will allow, subject to certain requirements consistent with this Agreement, a U.S. law firm to establish a representative office (FLC office) in Korea, and U.S.-licensed lawyers to provide legal advisory service on the laws of the jurisdiction in which they are qualified and on public international law as foreign legal consultants in Korea.

(b) No later than two years after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, Korea will allow a FLC office, subject to certain requirements consistent with this Agreement, to conclude a specific cooperative agreement with a Korean law firm to jointly deal with a case in which domestic and foreign legal affairs are mixed, and to share profits derived from the case.

(c) No later than five years after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, Korea will allow U.S. law firms to establish, subject to certain requirements consistent with this Agreement, a joint venture firm with Korean law firms. Korea may impose restrictions on the proportion of voting shares or equity interests of the firm. For greater certainty, such joint venture may, subject to certain requirements, employ Korean-licensed lawyers as its partners and/or associates.

3. Korea shall maintain, at a minimum, the measures adopted to implement its commitments in paragraph 2.

For the purpose of this entry, a U.S. law firm means a law firm organized under U.S. law and headquartered in the United States.

Description: Cross-Border Trade in Services and Investment

Korea reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure relating to the provision of international maritime passenger transportation services, maritime cabotage, and the operation of Korean vessels, including the following:

A person that supplies international maritime passenger transportation services must obtain a license from the Minister of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries, which is subject to an economic needs test.

Maritime cabotage is reserved for Korean vessels. Maritime cabotage includes maritime transportation between harbors located along the entire Korean peninsula and any adjacent islands. “Korean vessel” means:

1. a vessel owned by the Korean government, state enterprises or institutions established under the Ministry of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries;
2. a vessel owned by a Korean national;
3. a vessel owned by an enterprise organized under the Korean Commercial Code;
4. a vessel owned by an enterprise organized under foreign law that has a principal office in Korea and whose dae-pyo-ja (for example, a chief executive officer, president, or similar principal senior officer) is a Korean national. In the event of gong-dong-dae-pyo-ja (co-dae-pyo-ja), all dae-pyo-ja (for example, a chief executive officer, president, or similar principal senior officer) must be Korean nationals.
