

Appendix I - Introductory note 6.1

The special rule for textile materials excludes linings and interlinings. The 'pocketing fabric` is a special woven fabric that is exclusively used for the production of pockets and can therefore not be considered as normal lining or interlining. The special rule applies therefore to 'pocketing fabric` (for trousers). The rule applies to woven fabrics in the piece as well as to finished pockets originating in third countries.