⁹ “Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services” means the ability of international maritime transport service suppliers of the other Party to undertake locally all activities which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. (This commitment shall not, however, be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery).

These activities include, but are not limited to:

- (a) marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;
- (b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf of their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated services;
- (c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents, or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;
- (d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerised information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of this Agreement);

A legal person must have its principal domicile and real and effective seat in Chile, with its chairman, manager, and the majority of the directors or administrators being Chilean natural persons. In addition, more than 50 percent of its equity capital must be held by Chilean natural or legal persons. For these purposes, a legal person with ownership participation in another legal person that owns a vessel must comply with all the aforementioned requirements. A joint ownership (comunidad) may register a vessel if the majority of the joint owners are Chilean nationals with domicile and residence in Chile, the administrators are Chilean nationals and the majority of the rights in the joint ownership belongs to Chilean natural or legal persons. For these purposes, a legal person with ownership participation in a joint ownership (comunidad) that owns a vessel must comply with all the aforementioned requirements. In order to fly the national flag, the captain of the ship, its officers and crew must be Chilean nationals. For these purposes, a special vessel does not include a fishing vessel. The conditions required to register special vessels owned by foreigners are the following: the foreign natural or legal person must be domiciled in Chile and have its principal head office in Chile or be permanently engaged in a profession or commercial activity in Chile. The maritime authority may, for reasons of national security, impose special restrictions on the operation of these vessels. The foreign vessels must use pilotage, anchorage and port pilotage services when the maritime authorities so require. In tugging activities or other manoeuvres in Chilean ports only tugboats flying the Chilean flag may be used. Captains must be Chilean nationals and be acknowledged as such by the relevant authority. Officers on Chilean vessels must be Chilean nationals and registered in the Register of Officers (Registro de Oficiales). Crewmembers of Chilean vessels must be Chilean nationals, have the permit granted by the Maritime Authority and be registered in the relevant Register. Professional qualifications and licences granted abroad shall be valid for service as an officer on national vessels if the Director General of the Territorio Marítimo y de Marina Mercante (Maritime Territory and Merchant Navy) so determines by a reasoned decision. Ship captains (patrón de nave) must be Chilean nationals.

(e) the setting up of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency;

(f) acting on behalf of the companies, organising the call of the ship or taking over cargoes when required.
